

Excellence in Classroom Teaching - Secondary

Nancy Pérez

California

Nancy Perez is a truly exceptional language educator and a respected leader within our world language teaching community. Her dedication, proficiency, and charisma are evident in every interaction, whether it's in the classroom, as an adjunct faculty member, or as a leader in organizations like CLTA and CVWLA.

Nancy's expertise spans all levels of Spanish language and culture, including AP courses. She has had a positive impact on the lives of many students, lending her skills to engaging learners from diverse backgrounds, employing a variety of methodologies and leveraging the latest pedagogical theories and tech tools to create content. Her commitment to motivating students, particularly underrepresented groups, is truly commendable.

Beyond the classroom, Nancy's warm and enthusiastic personality makes her a beloved colleague and mentor and a passionate advocate for world language education at the state and national levels. She shares her knowledge and expertise through workshops and conferences, inspiring others to embrace the value of language learning. Her dedication to her profession and her ability to foster positive relationships with students and colleagues make her a role model for all educators.
